

The following tongue and interpretation was delivered through Kenneth E. Hagin in November, 1968:

For His love is from everlasting to everlasting. Yea, He ever looketh with divine compassion upon those who are His. And He will not forsake thee. For He hath declared, "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee." Therefore rejoice in His love and walk in His grace. For His light upon thy pathway has shined.

And I lift my spirit and my heart unto thee, O Father in adoration and thanksgiving. For all of Thy loving kindnesses and tender mercies that are mine. Yea, my spirit doth magnify thee, O Lord. My heart, my spirit unto thee in adoration and thanksgiving. For Thou art my Father and I am Thy child.

And though all the world around about me lieth in darkness, yet I walk in the light of Thy Word. And though the world around about me is without hope, hopeless, yet I am filled with faith. For the Lord is on my side. He is my Keeper, He is my Sustainer.

Yea, He is my Shepherd: I do not want. I shall walk in the place of spiritual riches and material and financial blessing. Even when those around about me are in the place of lack and want, I shall walk in healing and health when others are plagued on every side. For the Lord is my Strength. He is my Healing. He is my Health. He is my Light. He is my Sustainer. He is my Keeper. He is my All.

And I will walk in faith. Yea, I will praise Him when I cannot see with my natural eye the results of my praying. Yet I will praise Him in faith because He hears my prayers. Yea, He answers the cry of my heart. And He gives unto me the desires of my spirit.

And so I will praise Him, even in the midst of seemingly defeat. I will lift my voice to Him in faith declaring my confession that "it is mine, I have it now!" When all of my physical senses lie, I will shout above the storm with a voice of triumph. "It is mine, I have it now!"

For the Lord is my Helper in the midst of the storms of life. In the midst of temptation and strife. In the midst of darkness of life. Yea, in the midst of the cloud and the storms that gather. He is my Helper, my Sustainer, and He upholdeth me with the right hand of righteousness.

And so I shall not be afraid for the terror by day. Nor shall I be afraid of the enemy that cometh in the night time. A thousand will fall at my side. Ten thousand at my right hand. But it shall not come nigh me. For my Father watches over me. He careth for His own. Yea, He will sustain thee, and cause thy spirit to be lifted up.

So that thou shall stand on the mountain top of victory. In the midst of sorrow. In the midst of sadness. In the midst of adverse circumstances. In the midst of the winds of adversity that blow. My spirit shall be glad. For Him do I know.

Yea, I will rejoice in Him in this hour and in the next. And I will look forward to the future with great anticipation and faith. For the Lord is my Keeper today and tomorrow. And He is the same yesterday, today, and for ever.

I will be glad and praise His Name. I will be glad and praise His Name. I will be glad and praise His Name. When the enemy comes in like a flood, I will be glad and praise His Name.

For the Spirit of the Lord lifteth up a standard against the enemy. So I can sing a song of victory. The Lord is on my side. Yea, He is my Keeper. He sustains me.

He is the One, not me myself. My hope, my trust, my faith is not in my flesh but in Him Who is the Eternal One. Yea, He hath never failed. He will never fail. He has never changed. He will never change. He is the same now as He was yesterday.

He is the same One that spoke and the heavens came into being. He is the same One that spoke and the earth came into being. Yea, He is the Mighty One. He is the All Sufficient One. He is the All Wise One. He is the All Good One. He is my Father.

I love my Father. My Father God loveth me for I am His child. I have been born of the Spirit, washed in the Blood. Come into the family of God. Yea, His Spirit is in my spirit crying "Abba Father."

Therefore I am glad and I rejoice. Rejoice! Rejoice in the midst of crisis. Rejoice in the midst of storm. Rejoice in the midst of that which even seems wrong. And it seemeth as though it does not work out right. Yet I rejoice.

For the Spirit of the Lord raises up a standard against the enemy when He comes in like a flood. And so I rejoice for I know the end. He who knoweth the end from the beginning has already declared that I, you, we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us.

And hath given Himself for us. And He hath said that nothing shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus. Hallelujah. Therefore my spirit doth rejoice and my heart is glad. And I sing a song of victory. I sound a note of praise. Yea, I rejoice in the morning. Yea, I rejoice in the night. Yea, I rejoice in the day time.

Yea, I thank Him. My spirit is filled with thanksgiving and praise. For the Lord is on my side and if the Lord be for us, who can be against us? Yea, He that is against us is the enemy. But He that is for us is greater than the enemy. And He is for us. For greater, it is written, is He that is in you than he that is in the world.

And so the victory is won. And I'll not be discouraged even though the battle seems to be lost. Yet I know that the victory is won. For Christ is the Victor. Hallelujah. And so I'll speak in faith and I'll be glad and rejoice. And I'll lie down and rest.

Yea, I'll sleep. For He giveth His beloved sleep. I'll not lie awake for I have no worry. I'm not filled with care. For He hath said, "Casting all your care upon Him for He careth for you." Yea, He careth for you. And I've cast my cares upon Him. Therefore I am carefree, burden free. And my spirit is happy and I rejoice in His love. So I walk in faith and I'll walk in the Spirit. And I'll walk in the light of His Word. For His Word is light unto my path.
