

Days of Acceleration – Delivered by Billye Brim in 2022

“For these are the days of acceleration. You will see acceleration in every realm. You will see it in every social strata. You will see it in nations. You will see it in judgments. You will see it in blessings. You will see it in glory.” Yes, Lord. We need glory. We need your glory. Your outpouring. “Everything accelerated. This is the day of acceleration and for it, your day of preparation. You are preparing this day to accelerate in the way I choose for you. So get ready. God’s preparing to accelerate.

He’s by His Spirit pressing down as I say on that pedal of acceleration. He’s going to push it down in your life in a good way.

She goes on to say, “You are preparing this day to accelerate in a way I choose for you... to go, to do, to shine, to show, to manifest.” Or you could say, “reveal God.” “This next period, you shall see men who walk and women who walk in and out of eternity, and coming back.”

I desire that. I don’t know about you. Like Enoch, right? That we would walk in and walk out of the spirit dimension. That more than anything, I feel like is something God is calling for and summoning now in the church. I think the time is gone when we can just function in a natural sense, when we can do religion according to tradition and experience no effect because Jesus Himself said the traditions of men render the Word of God of no effect.
