

A Place of Great Change – Prophecy Delivered by Creflo Dollar on August 2, 2006 at the Southwest Believers' Convention

“For these are the days of a great turnaround,” saith the Lord. “And I am about to lead My people back to the place of change. When I changed My servant’s name, it was at an altar. When I caused great victory to take place, it was at an altar. When great deliverance befell My people, it was at an altar. And so now, in these last and final days, I am once again calling My people to the altar. For this a place of great change. And as you bring your problems, and bring your lack, and bring your issues to Me at the altar, I will cause a transformation to take place. And yes, I will even prepare you for the promise of the transference of the wealth of the wicked into your hands, if you will come and meet Me at the altar. For salvation has taken place at the altar. And dedication has taken place at the altar. And now I’m about to prepare a people at the altar.

“So be not dismayed or wonder from which this shall come from. For I’ll begin to flow out of you like mighty wind and mighty waves, and you’ll begin to speak unto Me, yes, in the language that I have made available unto you. And I’ll cause the secret things to be made unto you in these last days, and with great celebration and rejoicing in the midst of it all you will rejoice before Me. For I will make it good for thee,” saith the Lord. Amen.
