

The following is excerpted from Kenneth Hagin's Holy Ghost meeting on 10/16/94 in Kansas City:

A spirit of knowing...a spirit of knowing, which of course is the Holy Ghost, will come into manifestation in a greater measure. It was by the Spirit that Peter knew that Ananias and Sapphira had lied against the Holy Ghost, judgment fell upon them. A spirit of knowing will be upon the Church in these last days in a greater measure than any of you have ever seen it before. A spirit of knowing. Hallelujah!

A spirit of seeing. Where the prophet in the Old Testament was called a seer because he would see and know things supernaturally. A spirit of seeing will be in manifestation in the church in these last days in a greater measure than you have seen here. You'll enter first of all into the knowing and then proceed into seeing.

The days are upon us. For the last days are here and the work of God must be accomplished. The plan of God must be carried out. The truth of God must be made known. Hallelujah!

And it shall be. It shall be. It shall come to pass. That which your heart has hungered for, that for which some of you have earnestly sought. It shall come to pass. Right on the verge. Yes, we're in it, in a measure. But we're right on the verge of an outbreak of the Spirit and power of God, of an outpouring of the Holy Ghost. Not seen by this generation. Right on the verge. And it shall surely come to pass.

Say it with voice and heart. Say it with voice and heart. That is with your voice and let your heart agree with it. Say it, "it shall come to pass. It shall come to pass. It shall come to pass at last! No man can keep it from coming. No powers of hell, evil spirits of the devil can gainsay it. It shall come to pass. Hallelujah!" Now put your hands up and thank him for it.

Thank you, thank you, thank you....

The following is excerpted from The Unseen Realm by Kenneth Hagin:

And the unseen realm shall be manifested in the seen, and eventually the seen shall be swallowed up of the unseen. The work, the plan and the purpose of God shall be unfolded. And all that has hindered thee and all that has held thee back shall surely be removed. So, thou shalt walk in the faith that has been ordained of thee from the foundation of the world. Thou shalt fully obey the calling of the Lord, to stand in your place and call the people of God unto Him.

And they that hear your voice shall hear the voice of God. And they that look shall see the works of God manifested unto them and done before their very eyes. And that which your heart has longed for and that which you have earnestly sought shall surely into full fruition come to pass even as it was spoken unto thee.

For the hidden man of the heart is hidden unto the physical senses, and yet he is just as much a man as the physical man is a man. He knows the things of the Spirit, and the Holy Spirit dwelling in him causes him to be doubly sure of the way that he should go. Sure of the way that the Lord doth direct.

When the physical doth dominate, and when the mental doth dominate, then the spiritual doth grow indistinct and man gropes for his way in the spirit realm like a blind man in the natural groping for his way. And so, in the spiritual realm (when spiritual things are indistinct) man spiritually gropes, blinded, seeking someone to guide him.

But, yea, the guide has been sent, for even as the Master has declared that when the Spirit of truth has come, He shall guide. So, learn to let Him guide, who in thee does reside. Abide in the fullness of His power and the fullness of right away in you, and He will guide. He will guide you into all truth; guide you in the way you should walk; guide you in the everyday affairs of life. There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.
