

The following prophecy was delivered through Kenneth Copeland on January 21, 1993 at the Ministers' Conference in Fort Worth, TX:

"Don't, don't be afraid. No, don't be afraid to declare the glory. Because you don't have to produce it. Don't be afraid to declare it forth in your congregations. Don't be afraid as I lead and guide you. Don't be afraid to share it with other people. Some will look at you like they ain't never heard of anything like that, and don't have any idea that you know what you're talking about."

"But others, will rise up in such joy that they'll not be able to contain themselves. And My Spirit will begin to move, and great things will begin to happen. Some of you are going to have explosions in your Sunday schools that are, that the glory of the Lord is going to come in such great proportions that some Sunday you're going to miss somebody's class and somebody'll go over to find them, and the glory will be on the Sunday school room so heavy and so strong there, can't anybody get in there. It's gonna spread. It'll spread from your church out into the neighborhood. There's coming a time very soon," saith the Lord of grace, "where the glory cloud will fall, on churches, and it'll fall in different places all over town. And stay in some places a few moments, and in some places a few hours and in some places a few days."

"Be prepared. Be ready. Prepare yourself, prepare yourself. Prepare your congregations. Get them ready to expect the people of the street to come flooding into your church. Get them ready to be shepherds and nursery attendants to help the little ones and the lambs that come in. Because they're gonna come in from other religions, they're gonna come out of, they're gonna come out of the ranks of Buddha, they're gonna come out of the ranks of Mohammed, they're gonna come from the nation of Islam, they're gonna come from all different places. They're gonna come from new age, they're gonna see that this is the New Age, they're gonna find out that this is the New Age that I'm pointing to," says the Lord Jesus. "Which is the millennial reign of God almighty's Son, Jesus, on the throne of grace. Hallelujah."

"Prepare your congregation, get them ready so that they don't frown upon those that are not dressed quite right, don't look quite right, and don't smell quite right, and they're a little uncomfortable to be around. Prepare them, for the street people are coming. The street people are coming, the street people are coming. I'm going to the highways and the byways," saith the Lord, "and My glory's fallen, My glory is falling, it's already falling in places around the country. I'm preparing you now to get the churches ready. Get My family ready for it. Because I'm gonna bring you the babies. I'm gonna bring you the nurseries full of 'em. I'm gonna bring 'em to ya that haven't the slightest idea what to do to serve Me," saith the Lord. And out of there, you're gonna raise mighty warriors, that'll go with ya to the ends of the earth. And preach this glorious gospel to every nation as a witness, and then the end shall come. Hallelujah. And then the end shall come," saith the Lord. Oh, glory.
