

The following prophecy was given by Kenneth E. Hagin on February 24, 1999:

"It has come to pass, it is coming to pass, and it shall come to pass. It shall come to pass at last and there shall be much cause for rejoicing. Ha ha ha and laughter in the Spirit. For the Lord Himself shall manifest Himself through the Spirit in the lives and ministry of His people and in His body which is the church, and there will be a great manifestation beyond that which you have seen. You will stand in awe and be expressly glad and joyous for the Lord is at work. Praise Him, worship Him, honor Him, and His glory shall be made manifest unto thee, and His glory shall be made manifest through thee and great, great, great, shall be the results thereof."

Thank you, Lord Jesus. Thank you, Lord Jesus. That's what the Holy Ghost is saying. Praise God forevermore, praise God forevermore. Praise God forevermore. Hallelujah. I heard the Spirit say, "it's not time to give up. It's not time to turn back, but it's time to move forward. For you're about to move into the greatest move of glory that you've ever known or seen. So, take steps with Me," saith the Lord "and know that I'm leading and guiding and directing and enter in, enter in. Do not stand back as some do and wonder and say could this be true? Can this be so? No, be pliable, be yielded unto the Holy Spirit and He will guide thee, and He will speak to you. And in the nighttime you'll hear a voice speak unto you at times telling you exactly what to do and great shall be the rewards thereof."

Moving, moving, moving up, moving, moving forward, moving, moving on, moving, moving into, (tongues) moving, moving into a dimension of the Spirit that you've not been in before and you'll be overwhelmed, overwhelmed with holy awe, filled with tears of joy. Oh, oh, oh my, oh my, my, my, my, my, shall we? Shall we, Lord? Shall we enter into that holy place? Oh, to that place where the supernatural is commonplace, where the supernatural is an everyday manifestation. Oh my, my, my it is awesome, it is awesome, it is awesome, it is awesome, awe, open their eyes, open the eyes of Your people that they may see. Like the prophet of old said to his servants when the city was surrounded and they were in battle and surrounded, open his eyes and when his eyes were open, he saw chariots of fire and horsemen of fire all around about the city and the prophet said, "more of those that are with us than those that are with the enemy". And there was deliverance. Open their eyes, oh God, of this congregation, of these ministers, of these pastors, that they may see. I know they couldn't stand it; they couldn't stand it, they couldn't stand to see all of it, but a glimpse, a glimpse. They can stand a glimpse, a glimpse of Your glory, a glimpse of that realm. Yeah, and now, and now we'll leave the room.

I remember that you said to Elijah, "Go, anoint Elisha to be prophet in your room." We'll leave the room in which we have been ministering and now we step into that room. Oh my, oh my, oh my, oh my, oh yeah, yeah, I saw it, I saw it years ago. I saw it. I didn't know what it meant, but I'm stepping into that room. That's the final room of service of my ministry and life. I step into that room. Ha, ha, ha, ha, but it's not over tomorrow, it's not over next week, it's not over next year, it's not over the following year, but it extends out and I heard the Lord say I'm putting an extension on to the room. Somebody come help me. (Tongues and laughing)

If You can, Lord, show them, open their eyes, no, they're trying to see it with their physical eyes, shut your physical eyes and look with your eyes of your spirit, and see into that realm, and see the glory and see the cloud of God arising on the horizon bringing blessing, bringing power and spreading all across the land. (Laughing)

An explosion, an explosion, in a measure it is already happening, but it'll happen in a greater measure, glory to God, glory to God, glory to God, basking in His light, basking in the sunlight of His love, basking in the sunlight of His glory, energized by oooooooooooooohhhh, energized by His Spirit, quickened by His power, made whole. And so, your healing and your health shall spring forth speedily and your youth shall be renewed like the eagles, and the glory of God will rest upon you, and the glory of God will be seen upon you. Great joy there shall be in the camp. Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, don't look back, don't turn back, walk on, walk on, walk on, walk on in His presence, in His glory, and in His power and walk out into another world. Heh, heh, heh, heh, heh, heh, oh my, my, my, my, my, my, just how much? Lord, that presents a problem. Just how much do I tell? No, no. Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. No, don't tell them, don't tell them, wait, and let them see for themselves and then they'll go tell it. All right, all right, all right.

You think you receive much from the Lord, and a little have you received. But there's more, there's more, there's more, there's more. Reach out to Him, move up into the more, move out and thou shalt see and the glory shall be revealed unto thee. Thank you. I thank you, Lord. Well, praise God! That's it. That's it.
