

The following prophecy was given by Kenneth E. Hagin on May 27, 2002:

I saw some things and I heard Him say we're about to move into a dimension of the Spirit that most of you have not been before. Some have touched it briefly and ministered there. But there'll come a wave of glory, a wave of the power. And we're on the verge, on the edge. The gifts and callings of God are without repentance. He called you and gifted you, that is, empowered you, anointed you to minister in certain areas.

Now the anointing will come in a stronger, and you will say, and you will see for the Spirit of knowing and the Spirit of seeing shall be in a greater measure than what you've seen heretofore. That which has been made manifest shall be restored and shall be added unto until the greater anointing and the greater manifestations shall flow like a mighty river. And so, we're approaching that place. The question is: will you be one of them that will go, or will you be one that sits by the wayside and is left alone?

As far as me, I'm walking the high plane, I'm taking the high road where the blessings abide, and the power is in manifestation. So, rejoice, rejoice!

It's up to you. It's up to you. It's up to you. It's up to you. As far as me and my house, we're going. We're on the way.

It shall be even as I've seen it. I cannot describe it adequately. You would not understand it if I told you no more than an Eskimo understands about a tree 'cause you've never seen one. You would not understand it. But be open to the Spirit and be ready and be yielded for the manifestation shall come and the glory shall be revealed.

Taking shape, taking form. Again and again, like climbing a hill, we've climbed to the top. We've looked over into the valley and said, "Isn't that wonderful!" We should've gone on. But instead, we tarried and waited and sometimes climbed back down the hill. But as for me, I'm entering in.

Times past, because of a lack of knowledge, we got into some of these areas of the Spirit and got scared, afraid you couldn't get back. Enoch got over there. He didn't get back; he went on to heaven. Well, we're going over into the valley. Full of His glory; full of His power.

Oh, and I don't understand all I'm seeing. I don't understand it. But we will know, and we will understand, and we'll walk with it. Now is the time, now is the day. The Spirit of knowing and the Spirit of seeing in great restoration is come. And great manifestation shall be, shall be, yes, shall be in manifestation even in a greater than what you have ever seen or ever known. So be glad! Rejoice! For it is committed unto you. Now what you do with it is your responsibility.

He's getting us ready. He's doing His best to get us ready. Getting us ready for the days ahead, awesome days, awesome times, in the world perilous times, in the world fearful times. But in the realm of the Spirit, in the kingdom of God, awesome times! And the kingdom shall be enhanced, and the kingdom shall be enlarged. And many will rise up in that day and call you blessed, because you were the light that shined in the darkness, and they responded to the light and are walking in the light.

The past is gone and should be forgotten. As long as Satan can bring up the past, he'll rob you of faith and rob you of blessing. But the past, though it may be filled with failure, though may it be ordained with sin, yet it's gone. For He washes away. His Blood is efficacious. He said in His Word, "I will not remember thine iniquities. I, even I, am He that bloteth out thy transgressions."

Now start anew, knowing the past is all gone. It's all clear. You're in right standing with God. Because you're standing right with God, Satan has no dominion over you, you have dominion over him. So go forth to exercise your dominion. Understand this: you have dominion only in your domain. You don't have dominion in the other man's domain. But in your domain, your area of life, you shall reign as a king.

So what remains for us but praise! What remains for us but giving glory to His name! What remains for us but to thank Him every day the same, and walk in the Spirit. Be yielded to the Spirit. And know that you are connected to the Spirit. And He'll guide you into all truth and He'll show you things to come.

Give heed unto, give heed unto, give heed unto that which is said. Listen, not only with the ears of your flesh, but listen with the ears of your spirit what He's saying to you and the revelation He's bringing to you. Life will be different. Life will be victorious. Everything around you and about you will change and many will look upon you and say, "Is that the same person? Is that the same pastor? Is that the same teacher? Is that the same preacher? He is so different. She has changed so."

Yea, the Spirit of God causes us to be changed from one image unto another. And causes us to flow from one spirit to another and from one glory unto another glory. So, we rejoice! So, we rejoice! So, we rejoice! So, we rejoice! So, we rejoice!
